Hello My Fellow Goo Horders!

I've recently gotten into skincare.

I'll admit it. I slept in my makeup for almost 20 years.

Probably not the best thing to do, right? So, at the behest of a good friend, I started paying more attention to my skin. I figure that I want my skin to be good to me for at least the next 40 years, I better begin caring for it a little more, now. It's been a year of hits and misses.

I was intrigued when I was contacted to review a couple products from Albertini's skin care line!

Ready to find out about some fantastic items?

Rough Love. This is a body exfoliator. Wonderful scented with Rosemary and Eucalyptus oils. I love the fact that this scrub doesn't smell sweet, it smells natural and earthy. Perfect amount of grit coming from the salt and dark mud combination. It's the perfect exfoliator before a self tanner for me! It will feel like you have new skin. I'm an exfoliator lover (From way back, yo!) and this one is one of my new favorites! You'll be so soft, like a baby's bottom.

Warm Love. A Pumpkin Exfoliating Mask. OMG! Another product that I never knew I needed in ma life. My favorite holiday is Thanksgiving. This is warm pumpkin pie and whipped cream in a face mask. When you apply it starts to warm and you feel the creaminess and smell the spices, it's just so homey and comfy and and and.... I like to use this one before bed a couple times a week, smooth it on and rub it around after I've washed my face and keep it on while I brush my teeth. I'll wash it off amount 10 minutes later, after finishing the rest of my nightly routine. It feels luxurious and I feel fancy using it. In the picture below you can see the exfoliating bits.

My face feels soft and my skin looks brighter, happier. It's all the goodness of Thanksgiving dessert in a face mask and none of the calories! It's heaven in a tube. Last but not least....

Pure Love. This is an oil cleanser that blends olive oil, argan oil and jojoba oil. This stuff is magic! Dissolves makeup including waterproof mascara. Emulsifies with water to rinse cleanly. There's no film or greasiness at ALL! Gentle enough to use morning and night. Tough enough to really clean. There's a gentle fresh warm scent to it. It's really nice not having tight skin. I grew up being told that tight skin meant clean skin. This is so not the case! My skin feels amazing after I use this. I want a body cleanser like this. Seriously, I want to bathe myself in Pure Love!

I've noticed using these products that my skin is happier and more glowy. Who doesn't want that? I'm always nervous trying new things because of my weird sensitive skin. I've not had one problem with any of these products. This makes me a happy woman! These will stay in my current rotation of skin care. Not only do I like using them, I've seen results.
